

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Environment, Energy, and Resources Section

- ABA Environment, Energy, and Resources Section has a membership of over 10,000 attorneys and law students that reflects a broad spectrum of viewpoints. The members are from law firms, companies, government, public interest groups, and academia.
- It is an excellent forum to learn about substantive issues and to network with attorneys from across the nation and globe.
- The Section offers numerous opportunities to get involved, including 75 committees, numerous publications, and regular conferences, teleconferences, and webinars.
- Also, the Section puts on three large conferences each (normal) year – (1) the annual Water Law Conference (Spring); (2) the annual Conference on Environmental Law; and the Fall Meeting.
- With the pandemic, the Section has begun offering virtual, online conferences and webinars. On August 18th, the Section will offer a webinar on NEPA, entitled: NEPA 101: The Fundamentals in Transition.
- If you are not a member, I hope you will consider becoming one...
