

Jeffrey Prieto currently serves as the Senate confirmed General Counsel of the Environmental Protection Agency. His prior federal government service includes nearly 20 years across various agencies, including as an Attorney-Advisor in EPA's Office of Water. Under the Obama-Biden administration, he served as the Senate confirmed General Counsel of the United States Department of Agriculture. He also served at the U.S. Department of Justice Environment and Natural Resources Division where he served as a Trial Attorney, Counsel to the Assistant Administrator, and General Counsel. Prior to his most recent confirmation, he served as the General Counsel of the Los Angeles Community College District. Prior to his federal service, Prieto worked as environmental planner for a California municipality.