Kristena Glenn serves as an Assistant District Attorney for the Harris County District Attorney's Office in Houston, Texas. Kristena is responsible for criminal enforcement of environmental cases involving air, water, hazardous waste, and solid waste violations.

Kristena started her career at Galveston County District Attorney's Office in 2009. She was one of the first prosecutors in Galveston to have an environmental docket along with her trial bureau duties. She then came to the Harris County District Attorney's Office in 2013, and has served several areas of the Office, including the trial bureau. She came to the Environmental Crimes Section in 2020, where she is now the Section Chief.

Kristena earned her undergraduate cum laude degree in 2004 from Texas A&M University. She graduated in 2008 from South Texas College of Law with her Juris Doctorate. During her years in law school, Kristena interned for Galveston Bay Foundation, United States Coast Guard Sector Houston-Galveston in the IO Unit, and also for the Harris County District Attorney's Office in the Environmental Crimes Section.

Kristena has also taken on the role as an instructor for classes with Texas Environmental Law Enforcement Association and the Southern Environmental Enforcement Network Training.
