

Marisa Perales is a partner in Perales, Allmon & Ice, P.C., a small environmental law firm that advocates against polluters and in favor of the public's interest throughout Texas. The firm addresses various environmental issues that arise in Texas, including municipal, hazardous, and radioactive waste storage and disposal; water quality and air pollution; endangered species protection; and incompatible land uses. Ms. Perales also serves as vice-chair of the board for Clean Water Action and is a board member of Commission Shift.