

Patricia Peterson is the Vice President of Claims & Risk Management at Texas Lawyers' Insurance Exchange. She is an honors graduate of the University of Texas School of Law during which time she had internships with the Texas Supreme Court and U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. Upon graduating, she worked in private practice before taking an in-house litigation attorney for a national title insurance company. She transitioned to the professional liability insurance sector in 2013 when she joined TLIE. In addition to managing the claims department, she handles risk management inquiries and continuing legal education programs at TLIE.
