

Sally Perry is the Chair for the Air & Waste Management Association (A&WMA) Southwest Section. She is an Environmental Engineer for Vopak Industrial Infrastructure Operations. She has over 16 years of experience and responsibility in environmental compliance and permitting in the chemical, manufacturing, refining, and oil & gas industries. Her general knowledge base includes: air permitting and compliance, NPDES permitting and compliance, waste management and compliance, soil and groundwater assessments, greenhouse gas reporting, spill prevention, chemical reporting, and due diligence. Sally is the former Membership and Sponsorship Chair for A&WMA Gulf Coast Chapter. Sally holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Earth Systems and a minor in Biological Sciences from Stanford University.