

Tina O’Jibway serves as Legislative Director and General Counsel for Texas State Senator Robert Nichols. After law school, she worked for several years at an Austin-based law firm practicing environmental and administrative law with a focus on water. The siren song of the Legislature and the chance to work directly on policy drew her away from the firm and into the capitol in 2015, where she has worked since. Her work for Senator Nichols focuses on environmental and natural resources, energy and electricity and infrastructure policy. She also staffs the Senator on his work chairing the budget workgroup for Article VI, VII, and VIII. She holds a BA in Plan II Honors and English from the University of Texas at Austin and graduated with honors from the University of Texas School of Law in 2010.
