

Bruce A. Fogerty- Bio

Currently a senior advisor to EarthX, the largest environmental exhibition and conference in the world attempting to help create a more sustainable planet. Former Executive Director of the Senate Republican Caucus for the State of California. Consigliere to Trammell Crow a friend and business colleague for more than four decades. Former VP of marketing for the largest wholesale merchandise mart in the world, The Dallas Market Center Company. Developed a film studio in Dallas with Trammell Crow. Currently serving on the boards of Conserve America and Landcan. Founding Board member of The Trinity Forum, and have served on numerous faith-based boards.

As president of Worthwhile Productions I have created and consulted on a variety of worthwhile projects for the past twenty-five years including the Easter Cross Witness and Theo, an animated theologian who teaches children theology. Currently developing a micro-philanthropy project, Citymite, that hopes to distribute $50,000 daily in Dallas in 2024 to different worthy nonprofits.

I am a: Lover of life, travel, deep powder, the unexpected & littleneck clams, and all things Maine • Hater of the status quo • Spiritual entrepreneur • Inventor • Amateur etymologist • Future Dancing with the Stars victor •

A poet who for many years wrote a poem every morning and put multiple copies in a birdbath in front of my home AKA The Birdbath Poet! For whatever reasons, hundreds would come by for a copy of their daily verse for poetry is the oil in the engine of life!
